ICYS

Invitation to the 32nd International Conference of Young Scientists

30 October 2025

Dear Authorized Representative,

It is with great pleasure that St. Mark's Sr. Sec. Public School, Meera Bagh extends an invitation for your country to participate in the 32nd International Conference of Young Scientists (ICYS 2026). This event will be held in the SMS campus in New Delhi, India from 19 to 24 April 2026.

The ICYS 2026 will bring together young scientists and educators from around the world. This will be a unique opportunity fostering collaboration, exchanging innovative ideas through project presentations and highlighting the most recent advances in STEM educational pedagogies. The event will also provide a platform for all delegates to come together to learn about different cultures through interactive activities.

For the ICYS 2026, each participating country is welcome to nominate a maximum of six students, and two delegation leaders. The student nominees must not exceed 19 years of age. Each participating country is invited to present their research projects under the following 6 categories:

- Physics
- Environmental Sciences
- Mathematics
- Engineering
- Computer Science
- Life Sciences

To confirm your participation, we kindly request you to register by 31 January 2026.

Registration of all participants should be done only by the Country Representative. The registration fee is 380€, and is inclusive of airport transfers, meals and accommodation. Bank details as well as the registration link will be shared shortly.

For more information, please visit: <https://icysindia.saintmarksschool.com/>.

We eagerly anticipate your country's involvement in ICYS 2026 and look forward to meeting you at this prestigious event.

Yours sincerely,

RITIKA ANAND
